DR. COOK RETURNS TO NEW YORK

Explorer Receives Freedom of the City Conferred by Board of Aldermen

Dr. Cook Declares He will Substantiate Every Claim He Has Made-"The Confidence You Repose in Me Is Not Misplaced"-May Take Legal Action in the Earrill Matter-How the Affidavit was Obtained.

A. Cook of Brooklyn, came back to New York as culm and smiling as ever, received the freedom of the city conferred by the board of aldermen, branded as a lie the affidavit of Ed-ward N. Barrill, the guide who says he did not attain the summit of Mt. McKinley and, finally, to crown the day, fired the shot which started a twenty-four-hour automobile race at Brighton beach. trighton beach.

He will remain in New York until nday night, when he will start for west on another lecture tour. In ceantime he will confer with s. I over the advisability of bringing action against Barrill for alleged perjury, and he may issue a detailed affidavit in reply to the guide. Presented a Gold Medal.

'I will substantiate every claim I have made with every proof within the power of man. The charges brought against me relative to my polar trip have been based upon evasive answers by my loyal Eskimo triends, while the alleged affidavit of my Mt. The Eskimos were made to say what they did not say, and I will bring them here, not to prove my conquest of the pole, but to prove the truth of this last statement. Two Suspects Held Without Bail for Future Hearing.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 15.—The formal lodging of a charge of murder against Wilfrid Thibeault, a chauffeur, and Frank Hill an 'herb doctor,' both of this city, was the principal development today in the still unexpialned tragedy revealed by the finding of portions of a young woman's body in Tiverton, R. Bolen, a coal mining operator, well known in the southwest, who says he has hunted with the companions who made the Mount McKinley trip with Dr. Frederick A. Cook, is credited with declaring here today that he did not believe that Barrill had signed the Mount McKinley affidavit credited to him in the story sent out from New York yesterday.

Mr. Bolen is president of the Bolen-Darnell Coal company of McAlester, Okla, and was in Hartford today on business. He formerly lived in Kansas City on Oct. 7 Mr. Bolen talked with City on Oct 7 Mr. Bolen talked with the explorer concerning a story of the Mount McKinley trip that had been re-lated to him by Dr. Cook's guides, Bar-rill and Fred Prince.

In a statement to the Associated Press, Bolen said: "I have on file at my office in either Kansas City or McAlester, Okla., cor-respondence with Barrill and Fred Prince, Cook's guides in his two as-cents of Mount McKinley. Until I see the pictures which Cook has of these two guides, and can verify their signa-tures. I will not believe that Barrill signed that affidavit denying they they made a trip over there today, but it was the general belief of those interested in the case that a positive identification would be diffic at. if not impossible in any case, with the head missing. Two or three police officers continued the search for the head reached the summit.

"Until I examine that correspondence I can only talk from memory. I associated with Prince and Barrill in 1905 and corresponded afterwards. My recollection is that these letters told of the attempt to scale Mount McKinley in 1904, which falled two thousand feet from the summit. The letters describe the successful ascent in 1906 and state positively that they did reach the summit and that Barrill claimed to have reached the summit a few feet ahead of Cook. in the swamp land along the Bulger marsh and Fish roads in Tiverton to-day, despite the pouring rain, but without result. The dragging of a portion of Mount Hope hay off Taber beach, near where the bundle of clothing was found yesterday, likewise pro-duced no cive. Unless the case should take some unexpected turn it is im-probable that any definite progress will be made toward solving the mys-tery, antil the head of the murdered girl is found.

While economy in advertising is not so very different from other economies, but any economy which carries upon it the stamp of stress or smallness does not make the right impression. As H. S. Snyder illustrates it in the New York Commencial: "A house considers it economy to have its salesmen travel first class and stop at the best hotels. It would be easy for a concern to saye (?) large sums annually by placing more restrictions on its salesmen's expenses, but it would not be true economy. Furthermore, money could be saved (?) by securing cheaper salesmen. Suppose a firm should set a limit of $1.000 as the highest salary for its salesmen—but this of course sounds foolish. Well, stinting on the advertising is no more economy than stinting on the sales force, only it is easier to recognize the latter.

"There are to general divisions of advertising cost. One may be considered as buying the right or opportunity to display the advertisement. The other is represented by the preparation of the advertisement, itself. The cost of displaying the advertisement will almost invariably be many times the cost of preparing the advertisement. The cost for the right to display the advertisement is a fixed expense, having no relation whatever to the value of the matter constituting the advertisement. It is therefore economy to see that copy is well prepared and to spend as much money on it as is accessary to the securing of proper effects." ATLANTIC FLEET TO SPEND CHRISTMAS IN NEW YORK.
